COPE to start voluntary recycling center in Monaghan Township

Citizens Organized to Protect the Environment (COPE) plans to start a voluntary recycling center in Monaghan Township.

"We would like to do this in conjunction with the Township's Volunteer Fire Department," said Arthur Gierke, head of COPE.

COPE is a non-profit organization that was formed in 1983 to help the township with its recycling program.

The township has been successful in its recycling program, and COPE is looking to expand it.
